

Announcing

The Jenny Lind Porter Scholarship of the Austin Poetry Society 2013-2014

$1,000 will be presented to an undergraduate student of creative writing and poetry who is enrolled in an Austin area institution of higher education.

The successful application will include:

- a completed cover sheet (on a form supplied by APS);
- an essay, maximum 300 words, written by the applicant, explaining why the applicant writes poetry, any experience the applicant may already have in writing, and why the applicant deserves to receive the scholarship at this time;
- a letter (or email) of recommendation from a faculty member (required as an attachment);
and
- a sample, between three and five pages, of the applicant's poetry.

For notification of outcome, include a stamped, self-addressed envelope or email address.

Members of the Austin Poetry Society or their relatives are not eligible to receive this scholarship. Retain copies of your manuscripts. The APS will not publish the submitted poems without your permission, but your original copies may be shared with the honoree, Professor Jenny Lind Porter.

Applications may be mailed to the address below or emailed to APSscholarship@yahoo.com

Applications must be received on or before Saturday, March 8, 2014.

Address for mailing applications:

Scholarship Committee
Austin Poetry Society
924 Dexter Dr.
Leander, Tx 78641

If a successful application is received the award will be presented in the regular meeting of the Austin Poetry Society between 1:30 and 3:30 p.m. on Saturday, April 19, 2014, in the Yarborough Branch Library, 2200 Hancock Dr., Austin.